Dear parents and students,
Our English newsletter this year not only witnesses the first work of our budding editors but also provides a platform to show our students’ masterpieces. I hope you will treasure this platform to showcase your work.
Yours sincerely,
Joyce Sit
Hi! A new year has come already. This newspaper will make you happy and excited, because there are different parts of the newspaper: letters, sports, arts, games, puzzles, jokes, our school news and World news. All the parts will be so much fun!

We have many journalists who have used their time and heart to make this newspaper colourful and attractive. If you read this newspaper you will think the newspaper is magic! It will bring you to a new world.

All of us are very proud to make this newspaper because we can show our masterpieces to teachers, students and parents to see! We hope you will like this magical newspaper too!

If you have time, you can send some comments to us. We will be sure to use your suggestions in next year’s newspaper! We hope that you will look forward to reading our newspaper and love it every time! Also did you know that there will be an online version of the LMC Star? You can find it on the school website and read even more interesting articles!

The Editor (Katie 5D (19))

Hello there! Time flies as the saying goes. Another academic year is almost coming to an end. Hopefully everyone has had a great time at school this year.

Well, while I am not sure how much you have enjoyed our paper, the LMC Star, hopefully you do not find it boring! To be honest, our journalists have worked very hard on it. Our goal is for every student to enjoy the paper while improving their English reading skills as a result.

LMC Star is quite fun to read if you flip through it. In addition to news articles and reviews, there is also fun stuff like jokes, puzzles and games which I am very sure most of you will enjoy!

This edition of the LMC Star is great. You will like it a lot. Just remember all the efforts our journalists have put into it! There are different parts for everyone. I am sure all of you will find it entertaining in your own way.

The Editor (Katrina 6C (17))
The School Carnival
By Katie 5D (19)

In the first term of this year, our school held a huge activity—the school carnival. Do you remember when this activity was held? It was held on the 13th of January!

Our principal held this activity to raise school funds. In this activity, we earned a lot of money from our parents. They helped us, so we should also help them at home.

In this carnival, we had at least 15 games from different classes (4A to 6E). We also had a parade and a Cat Walk Competition. The Cat Walk Competition included a group of classmates and their parents. The children that joined the competition wore an astronaut uniform that had to be made from recycled materials. Who was the winner? Find out on the LMC website yourself! Lastly, I hope this activity has given you good memories!

---

Painting the School Mural
By Katie 5D (19)

On 11th February of 2012, our school held a painting activity. Do you know it? Yes, all right! We painted murals outside the school!

Painting murals is a very interesting job because we normally don’t have any opportunity to paint murals.

The objective of the activity is to make our school become more beautiful. We used different colours to paint the murals, for instance, green, red, purple, blue...

At the beginning, we thought it was very difficult to paint a mural. After a while, I thought it was easy to control the paintbrush. By the way, we also needed to cooperate with our classmates. Luckily, we divided the work effectively. I was responsible to paint in green on the mural, it was the most difficult part!

Finally, we made the mural more attractive and colourful. When we stood back, we saw a fabulous mural. There are two boats, and in them are a woman, a man, a girl and a boy. Also, many insects are flying around to find their lovers. This mural is so sweet!
The Watoto
By Katie (19), Juliett (31), Jesse (18) and Andy (1) (all 5D)

Watoto means children. This organization helps Africa’s orphans. On the 8th of March, Watoto held a music show in our school. The meaning of the music was about the African orphans whom Watoto has helped to change and improve their lives. The songs were also about their thanks to God for helping them.

In the music show, they sang many songs, such as ‘I am not forgotten’, and shared their experiences with us. Some BSTWLMC students went up on stage and danced with Watoto. They danced awfully and we all laughed loudly. Also the Watoto had a market on the ground floor where we could buy souvenirs. They had pens, bags, hats, boxes, necklaces and many other things. We could also buy CDs to listen to the songs of the music show again and again!

Dear Watoto,

How are you? We hope that all the people who see your show enjoy it as much as we did and that they donate lots of money to help you too. We hope that we will meet you again in the future.

From all the students at BSTWLMC
Mid-Autumn Festival

By Jesse Lee 5D (18)

Mid-Autumn Festival, also known as Moon Festival, Mooncake Festival or Zhongqiu Festival, is a popular lunar harvest festival celebrated by Chinese and Vietnamese people all over the world.

On 12 October 2011, our school (BSTWLMC) celebrated Mid-Autumn Festival. We played with lanterns, sang Festival songs and watched a drama about the moon with funny characters. Our principal gave the students some difficult riddles to guess. When we went back to the classroom, we turned on the lanterns for a little while. After that we ate the mooncake together. What a happy time celebrating Mid-Autumn Festival together!

I love Mid-Autumn Festival because I can play with lanterns, eat mooncake and admire the big, round moon. I liked the celebration after the second recess because we could learn some knowledge and celebrate the festival. But I wish the celebration would extend to one whole day because we could spend more time celebrating the Festival with our friends from other classes, the teachers and the principal. Next time, I wish to see students performing magic about Mid-Autumn Festival, a Chinese dance, Dragon dance or with Chinese instruments. I am sure everyone will love this idea. Finally, I hope that we could play with our lanterns in the hall for a longer time. It would be so exciting!

I am really looking forward to our Mid-Autumn Festival celebration next year. I am sure there will be more interesting programs awaiting us.
Two weeks ago, our school had an examination. I asked my friends about their feelings. Some said that it was easy, but others thought that it was very difficult and they thought that they had nearly failed. I felt confident about the examination, because I had studied hard!

After the examination, we went to the school picnic at Tai Tong Farm. That day was sunny and hot. Everyone was delighted when they arrived. We first took a class photo, and then we had some free time. One of my classmates was very frightened of a bee. I couldn’t imagine that a P6 boy would be afraid of a very tiny little bee! At the farm, we played on the rope course, the swing and the slide. Some of my classmates and I spent 10 to 20 dollars to buy a toy rocket, but it broke down after flying 5 times. What a silly thing! At lunch time, we had a barbecue. I ate a lot but I didn’t eat any chicken wings.

Before we left, we played some class games. They were fun. One of the games was passing a basketball backward through our legs. In the end, our team came second, we all jumped with excitement! Time flew so quickly especially because it was a moment of great happiness. We had to leave at about 3:30 pm.

After the examination, we were all tired, but after the school picnic, we were thrilled!
By Howard Ho 6A (13)
28th October was the swimming gala; I also joined the competition. When my sister and I arrived at Ma On Shan Swimming Pool, I saw my classmates playing and joking but I didn’t play with them because I was serious about the competition.
I was one of the participants, so after we sang our school song, I changed into my swimming trunks and got ready for the competition. I was in the sixth line. I didn’t think that I could be the champion but I still tried my best.
“Beep!!!” the horn blared. I swam as fast as I could, but I didn’t look at the others, or look at the marks after I finished the race.
After lunch, I changed into my scout uniform. I would be on duty in the afternoon. My partner and I took the guests to their seats. Wow, it was a very difficult job! Soon after, I started to take the flags down. The sun shone brightly and it was very hot that evening but I felt very happy and delighted. The swimming gala had finished, I was thrilled but exhausted so I needed to take a good, long rest!

By Jesse Lee 5D (18)
The 28th of October, 2011 was a special day of our school. It was the date of our swimming gala.

All the BSTWLMC students were eagerly waiting for that day because... the last swimming gala in 2010 was a rainy day. Our principal, Dr. Tang, decided to defer the swimming gala. This made our students very unhappy. But this time was completely different. We had our 2012 swimming gala on a sunny day, what an exciting event!

In the morning, we arrived at the Ma On Shan Swimming Pool and listened to the teacher telling us about the details of the swimming gala. After our principal, Ms Sit, officially started the games, the competition began. I joined the 50m free style and 50m breast stroke. I wasn’t fast enough to join the finals, but I tried my best. Ms Sit, our Principal, came to our classes and heard our slogans.

Time went fast and the swimming gala was successfully completed at 3:30pm. We all had great fun!
By Garrick 6A (34)

Tiangong-1 is the first Chinese space laboratory. Its purpose is to become a junction point of the other space system. It is part of the Tiangong program also known as Project 921-2, which aims to become a full-size, semi-permanently-crewed modular station.

According to the China National Space Administration (CNSA), Tiangong-1 is an 19,000 lb space-laboratory module, the size of 5 big lorries.

On September 29, 2008, the vice director of the China Manned Space Engineering Office (CMSEO), announced in an interview with China Central television (CCTV) that Tiangong-1 would be launched in 2010 or 2011. Xinhua later stated that Tiangong-1 would be launched in late 2010, and declared that the renovation of ground equipment was in progress.

In 2008, the official website of the China Manned Space Engineering Office (CMSEO) posted a brief description of Tiangong-1, along with Tiangong-2 and Tiangong-3, two space laboratories that are planned to launch after Tiangong-1. A model of the space station was shown on the Chinese Lunar New Year celebration program on CCTV on January 25, 2009.

By mid-2011, the device of Tiangong-1 was completed, and testing of its electronic, mechanical and thermal properties was in progress. Testing was also conducted on the Long March 2F carrier rocket on which Tiangong-1 would be launched. Chinese astronauts, including two women, underwent training for manned missions to the space station.

According to the CMSEO official website, the staff decided to launch the Tiangong-1 in the Jiuquan satellite launch centre on the 27-28th September at first. But the weather may of affected the launching of Tiangong-1 because it was too wet, so they decided to launch the Tiangong-1 on 29th, September. On The day of Tiangong-1’s launch the President of China, Hu Jin Tao, went to the Jiuquan satellite launch centre to watch the launching of the Tiangong-1. The launching of Tiangong-1 is going to change the aerospace history of China.

Vocabulary Section

#1 (laboratory). Room or building used for research, experiments and testing.
#2 (engineering). Making and controlling machines
#3 (junction). Joining or being joined
#4 (announce) Tell everyone
#5 (satellite). Man made device, e.g. a space station (orbiting around a planet)
#6 (renovation). Fix (especially buildings)
#7 (progress). Go forward
#8 (manned). Have people to control or to watch
By Garrick 6A (34)

Steve Paul Jobs (February 24, 1955 – October 5, 2011) was an inventor that changed the world, his inventions are really popular. He was the co-founder, chairman and chief executive officer of Apple Inc. I believe that everyone knows who he was and about his company Apple Inc. I think you may also own a product of Apple’s that is one of Steve Jobs’ inventions. In fact, he was also the co-founder of Pixar Animation Studios (the computer animation film studio that made Toy Story, Cars and The Incredibles).

His first invention was not an electronic product, it was a game called “break out”, lots of cell phone companies install this game on phones before you buy them, I think you may have played it before.

Then, he set up Apple with his friend Stephen Gary Wozniak. Soon, they invented the Apple I. After that, they invented the Apple II with Ronald Wayne. They also made the Macintosh computer.

Steve Jobs found that there were not enough people to do all the work, so he invited John Sculley to be the CEO of Apple. But John thought that Steve Jobs was useless and forced Steve Jobs to leave after John had worked for Apple a while.

Actually this is not the end of Steve Jobs, after leaving Apple, Jobs established the NeXT Computer in 1985, with $7 million USD. A year later, Jobs was running out of money, and he asked for help from a rich man called Ross Perot who gave lots of money to Steve Jobs, and so he invented the workstation computer.

Steve Jobs then went back to Apple and Apple was running out of money due to John Sculley. Steve Jobs then invented a lot of new products such as the iMac, iPhone and iPad.

Steve Jobs is a really clever, smart man. He used his character and personality to help improve himself, this is what we have to learn from him.

“Again, you can’t connect the dots looking forward; you can only connect them looking backwards. So you have to trust that the dots will somehow connect in your future. You have to trust in something - your gut, destiny, life, karma, whatever. This approach has never let me down, and it has made all the difference in my life.” - Steve Jobs
Dear LMC Star,

My little sister is so annoying! Every time I get home she is playing with my toys and sometimes she breaks them by accident. I tell her so many times ‘DON’T PLAY WITH MY TOYS!!!’ But she never listens. When I shout at her she will start crying and then I get into trouble and my parents scold me. How can I stop this stupid situation?

A P 3 student

To a P.3 student:

May you tell your parents about the problem? If yes, please tell them. Or you may hide your toys in a place that your sister does not know. Next time please remember to speak softly to your little sister. Maybe she just wants to play with you!

To a P.1 student:

Hi! I know you are a P.1 student. However, you need to be friendly to your classmates and they will be friends with you. You also can tell your friends of your problem or talk to the teachers about school. Our school is not so scary!!!
Dear LMC Star,
I have got my results back from the exams but I didn’t do very well. In fact, I failed two exams and only got 60 something in the others. I know that my parents will be very angry with me when I tell them the results so I have not told them yet. Also they take away my computer games but I love to play them every day. What should I do?

A P4 student

To a P.4 student:
Hmm... I think that you must say sorry to your parents and tell them you’ll get good results next time. You also can play the games after you finish your homework and revision!

Dear LMC Star,
There is one student in my class who always makes trouble. Every lesson of every day they cannot control themselves. It makes me feel so mad! I let them know how I feel by giving them a mean look when they talk to me and I will never let them sit next to me. Nothing works though! How can I make this troublesome classmate stop their silly behaviour?
A P5 student

To a P.5 student:
Hello! I think that you can tell the teachers about the troublesome classmate. If they do not show you what to do, you can tell your parents. They may help you. Also, maybe if you are nice to them instead of giving mean looks, they won’t act so crazy if they think they have a friend.
Puss In Boots 3D
By Lolo 6B (1)

Years before Puss meets Shrek and Donkey in Shrek 2, he goes on a heroic adventure teaming up with mastermind Humpty A. Dumpty and street-savvy Kitty Softpaws. He learns that the outlaw couple Jack and Jill have the magic beans he's been looking for most of his life, beans that can lead him to a giant's castle holding valuable golden goose eggs. When Puss tries to steal them from the outlaws' room, a masked cat interrupts. Both of them fail and escape, and Puss follows the cat back to Cat Cantina, a club, where they have a dance-off and a sword fight, ending when Puss hits the masked cat in the head with a guitar.

He learns that the masked cat is Kitty Softpaws, and is shocked to learn she is a girl. She is allied with Humpty Alexander Dumpty, a talking egg and Puss' long-estranged childhood friend from the orphanage where he was raised. Puss tells Kitty of his feelings of betrayal for a youthful misadventure when Humpty tricked Puss into helping him to commit a crime.

It turned out that Kitty was sleeping through the story. Humpty attempts to convince Puss to join them in finding the beans and retrieving the golden eggs, which he does.

Will they get the golden eggs? Will Humpty show himself to be a bad egg once again? What other adventures await for the three companions? You will have to watch the movie to find out!

I loved it, I even enjoyed the 3D; it was some of the best I've seen. The plot was stretched at times, but it zipped along and gave me a permanent smile on my face. Also the characters are funny and fine, the actor's voices are perfect matches for the characters. I think I will give this film 4 stars out of 5.
How to Make Easter Eggs

Easter is round the corner.
Let's make the exquisite Easter eggs together!

Ingredients:
- Glitter glue
- Decal
- Clay
- Patterns
- Spots

Tools:
- Scissors
- Rollers
- A plastic knife
- Colour Pens
- Glue

MIND THE STEPS BELOW!

1. FIRST, choose the colour of clay that you like.
2. NEXT, shape the clay into an egg.
3. THEN, use the clay to form different shapes.
4. AFTER THAT, stick the decoration (substances you want to add. For instance, decals, glitter glue etc.) onto the egg.

SUGGESTIONS:
You can also draw patterns onto the egg. After making this Easter Egg, you can use it to decorate your home or send it to your friend.

Congratulations! Your exquisite Easter Egg is finally done.

By Sinead (24) and Michelle (34) (both 6B)
Lady Gaga is a famous singer in America. Her real name is Stefani Joanne Angelina Germanotta, she was born in New York on the twenty-eighth of March, 1986. Now, she is twenty-four years old.

Lady Gaga has five famous songs, ‘Just Dance’, ‘Poker Face’, ‘Bad Romance’, ‘The Fame’ and ‘The Fame Monster’. Almost everyone in America knows how to sing her songs, this shows that Lady Gaga is a powerful singer. Also, Lady Gaga thinks that her look and dressing are important, so she dresses herself beautifully.

Lady Gaga will arrive in Hong Kong on the second of May. She has designed the place where she will have the concert, it is creative and active. It will be just like a maze that lets the audience feel more crowded and cheerful. I think the audience will jump with excitement and be filled with happiness.

This concert will let us know that Lady Gaga is strange and has lots of wonderful ideas. No one can pretend to be Lady Gaga because she is special and always shows her true self.

I am proud of Lady Gaga because not everyone can easily show their true selves and feelings. If our world had a lot of Lady Gas, it would be an amazing and joyous place!
Li Yundi, the great pianist

By Law Kwok Chi 5D (16)

I know nowadays, a lot of people like playing piano as well as me. It is the queen of musical instruments.

Li Yundi LOVES the piano too. He is a young pianist who was born in Chongqing, Sichuan, China on 7th October, 1982. Although coming from a family of non-musicians, he took to music early. Now he is a famous pianist all around the world. He also got a lot of first prizes in a lot of competitions because he practices for 8 hours every day. Wow!!!

How can we get good scores in piano exams? I have a great suggestion. Practice your piano everyday. Remember, "EVERYDAY". You don’t need to do it for eight hours like Li Yundi though, 1 hour a day is perfect! It is very easy, so try it. It truly works wonders!

If you really like piano music, you can see Li Yundi’s performance in Hong Kong from the end of last year. You can check it out on the internet. Break a leg!!!
<< The Deathly Hallows >>

Katrina Lau 6C (17)

J.K. Rowling strikes again! The last movie in the Harry Potter series show-downed in late July as the Harry Potter fans pop up all over the world for the latest movie.

As the last piece joins the puzzle, J.K. Rowling greets the audience with a surprise of bizarre events. The last battle is far from reality and beyond imagination.

“A nail-biting rollercoaster. A finale that ticks every box.” Heat.

Secrets to unravel, plots to happen, magic for you!

“Rowling has woven together clues, hints and characters from previous books into a prodigiously rewarding, suspenseful conclusion” Guardian.

Have you seen the other seven movies? You will find them exciting and unforgettable. For me, I enjoy The Chamber of Secrets most. J.K. Rowling is the most popular writer nowadays; you can find her magic everywhere.

The Deathly Hallows is a surprise as I found the sixth movie (The Half-blood Prince) quite boring. The rich mix of history and magic makes it unique. Interesting and twisty plots keep your eyes glued to the screen. Not a dull part could be found. J.K. Rowling had surprised me with this last movie.

Join the world of magic and let it dazzle you!
“Hey, I am Roscoe!”

<< Roscoe Riley Rules >>

Katrina Lau 6C (17)

This series (Roscoe Riley Rules) is a funny, off-beat tale based on a kid called Roscoe who always gets in trouble.

- First to start off with, Roscoe found a bottle of ‘super-mega-gonzo’ glue in the junk drawer and glued his classmates onto their chairs!
- Then, he swam in a tube of applesauce with his classmate, Wyatt, to find his sister’s toy because he promised to return it and got into trouble, again.
- Another time, he tap-danced in a talent show. You might think there is nothing wrong about that but Roscoe tap-danced right onto the teacher’s table and ONTO the teacher. That is something he should avoid.

Unable to expect more, the author continues to delight readers by Roscoe, stirring up new trouble. Roscoe is full of fun and surprises. Yeah, he maybe a little mischievous, well maybe a lot, but he is great at entertaining you for the morning. Roscoe will enlighten the day for you.

Roscoe is waiting to meet you and you will love him even though your parents may not like him much. And most of all, watch out for Roscoe when you are in the library or a bookstore. “Special greetings...to you!” Roscoe laughs.
Movie Review by Katrina Lau 6C (17)

Movie: Johnny English 2003

Quick overview: After a sudden attack on the MI5, Johnny English becomes the only secret agent left in Britain that survived the attack. When the priceless crown jewels were stolen mysteriously, Johnny English is called upon to recover the stolen articles. During the search, he accidentally found out that Pascal Sauvage, a sinister businessman, is planning to become King of England and plotting to turn all of England into one big prison. The most confident, yet unintelligent spy in history is on action to prevent Pascal from taking the throne. When the ‘fight’ between Pascal and Johnny finally goes on stage, the evil nature of Pascal is revealed to the people of England. And Pascal fails to become king in a mix of embarrassment and laughter.

My review: I highly recommend this movie to anyone of all ages, it is hilarious from start to finish. Rowan Atkinson is perhaps the funniest comedian alive for good reasons. He is well known for using his body to create comedy in his role as Mr. Bean. For this movie, Rowan Atkinson takes the role as Johnny English, who is the clumsiest secret agent that ever lived. As he tries to solve the mystery of the stolen jewels and prevent Pascal from taking the throne, he unleashes a chain of silly stunts, goof-ups and mischief that will keep you laughing to the end.
Rick Riordan by Katrina Lau 6C (17)

Does anyone know who Rick Riordan is? Rick Riordan is an award-winning mystery writer. He worked in a middle-school for fifteen years but now, he writes full-time and lives in San Antonio, Texas, with his wife and two sons.

Rick wrote three of my favorite series: ‘Percy Jackson and The Olympians’, ‘The Kane Chronicles’ and ‘The Heroes of Olympus’. They are the best books ever! ‘Perfectly paced, with electrifying moments chasing each other like heartbeats.’ --The New York Times Book Review

Out of all three series, I like ‘Percy Jackson and The Olympians’ best. All five books in the series were blockbusters! A fantastic blend of myth and modern. ‘Rick Riordan takes the reader back to the stories we love, then shakes the cobwebs out of them’ ---Eoin Colfer, author of Artemis Fowl

“According to an ancient prophecy, bad things will happen when I turn sixteen because I’m the one who gets to decide the fate of the entire world. That’s how it is when you’re the son of Poseidon, God of the Sea. But no pressure.” That’s how Percy said it but the real thing is a much bigger deal.

Rick Riordan’s writing is thrilling as a roller-coaster and full of surprises. What will happen next? Who knows?!” ‘Witty and inspired. Gripping, touching and deliciously satirical’ ---Amanda Craig, The Times

His work is colorful and up-beat. Once you pick it up, you can’t put it down! Riordan delivers puns, jokes and subtle wit, alongside a gripping story line---Sunday Telegraph
The Speech Competition

‘The Speech Competition? Never heard of it.’ You may say, but that is a big mistake.

Most students only know about the Speech FESTIVAL. The Hong Kong Inter-Primary Schools English Speech Competition isn’t much different. It is organized by HKMA David Li Kwok Po College. P4 to P6 students are welcome to join.

During the competition, students are placed in two categories: ‘prose reading’ and ‘dramatic monologue’. For ‘prose reading’, students should read a short story to the audience. As for ‘dramatic monologue’, students should dramatize a passage to the audience.

It is very important for the students to perform with the right tone, character and pronunciation. Before the competition, the students are allowed to practice the passage, just like the Speech Festival. The only difference between them is that students need to memorize the passage in the Speech Festival while students only need to memorize the passage if they have entered in the ‘dramatic monologue’ for the Speech Competition.

If you are part of the competition, don’t push yourself too hard. After all, it will not cost your life if you lose.

If you are interested in joining, you can go to: http://www.hkmadavidli.edu.hk/popup/2011-Nov-ENG-Speech-Competition/ENG-Speech-Competition/ENG-Speech.htm or ask Ms. Chan for more information about the Speech Competition.
Hello! I am Vanni Yeung. I would like to tell you about the experience of the Disney Halloween celebrations.

The last day of October is Halloween. I went to Disneyland with my family for Halloween last year.

I couldn’t stop crying while I saw the ghosts and monsters. They were so ugly and horrible! I played two Halloween games. My two little cousins did not play any Halloween games because they were too small and the workers would not let them go inside. I ate a lot of fries because I was so scared! After I finished eating the fries, my daddy took me and my cousins’ home because I was too scared!
Chinese New Year

During February it was Chinese New Year. I think all of you received a lot of red packets!

Let’s talk about the tasty Chinese New Year food!
People put different kind of sweets, candies, chocolates and nuts inside a confectionery box.

New Year’s eve is a day for family reunions. So many people will have a reunion dinner with their family. Most of them will use carrots, mushrooms, shrimps, smoked and salted meats and poultry, duck feet, even chestnuts to cook with. This is because we think those foods are lucky.

During the celebrations, we will also eat some melon seeds, lotus seeds and New Year’s cake.

In the New Year Fair, people buy flowers. Such as peach blossoms and narcissus flowers. Because they think that flowers bring wealth and honors. I hope you’ll be rich after your flower buying!
Egg Waffles

Now, I am going to talk about Egg Waffles. (雞蛋仔)
I think most of you also love to eat them.
However, do you know where the egg waffles came from? Let me tell you!

Once, there was a shop. The boss of the shop was so angry because there were so many eggs broken every day. He did not want to waste them. One day, he threw some eggs into a bowl. Then, he poured some milk that he had left into the bowl too.

While he went to throw the eggs and the milk away, he had an great idea! “Oh! I can bake this in the oven!” So he tried once and once again. Finally, he could bake, an egg waffle!

Now, you know about where egg waffles came from!

Smelly Tofu

This time, I am going to talk about Smelly Tofu. (臭豆腐)
I think most of you will smell many people eating smelly tofu in Mongkok. Let me tell you how the smelly tofu was invented!

Once upon a time, there was a man. One day, he wanted to cook tofu. First, he put some tofu in a big pot. Then, he put some mushrooms inside the pot also. At last, when he wanted to kill a pig to add some pork in the pot, the pig ran away. The man went to catch the pig.

As he went out, the dust that was on the wall dropped into the pot.
An hour later, the man came home. He shouted, “Oh! My pot of tofu is too dirty and smelly!” So he gave the pot of tofu to a beggar.

After the beggar ate, he exclaimed, “Wow! It is the tastiest food that I have had in ages!” This is the story of how smelly tofu was created.
Fun Centre

LMC is such a colourful place. Have you ever wondered what it would look like with no colour? Look at the pictures and solve the riddles to find out!

---

It’s a beautiful place. You can press the keys of the piano, play the violin and you can hear wonderful voices. Where is it?

---

You can do exercise here. You can be healthy boys and healthy girls if you go here a lot. Fat people should go there. Where is it?

---

You can see the universe here. It’s very beautiful. Sometimes, you will have lessons here to learn the secrets of the stars. Where is it?

---

Words by Andy (1)  Pictures by Julliett (31) (both 5D)
A man goes to the doctor and says, "Doctor, please help me. I hurt all over."

The doctor asked the man to explain more.

The man said, "When I touch my arm it hurts, when I touch my leg it hurts, when I touch my head it hurts. Everywhere I touch it hurts."

The doctor examined the man and said, "Mr. Smith, your finger is broken!"

God and the man

An American visited God and said, "God, do you mind if I ask you a few questions?"

God said, "You can ask anything!"

So the man said, "God, you've been around for a very long time, so how long is a thousand years for you?"

God replied, "For me, a thousand years is only five minutes."

The man then said, "That's interesting, God. And, for you, how much is a million US dollars?"

God replied, "For me, a million dollars is only five cents."

The man said, "Really? Well then, God, could you lend me five cents please?"

God looked at the man, and smiled, and said, "Of course my son! Just wait five minutes!"

Little Boy: Why is some of your hair white, mum?

Mom: Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me unhappy, one of my hairs turns white.

Little Boy: But, Mum, how come all of grandma's hair is white?
Today, Miss Doo needs P1. F to write about what positive things they have done before.

Ben writes and writes and writes...

Miss Doo was surprised she took a look and saw the last line was written...

“This is the end of the story”....
Frank was unhappy. He went to the bar to buy a drink.

Suddenly a man came into the bar and grabbed Frank’s drink.

The man said “Don’t be sad, I’ll buy you another drink!” Frank started to cry.

“There is poison inside my drink. I want to die because my wife kicked me out of my house, my boss fired me and my dad died. But you have drunk my drink!”